Kiddler of Peacham. The bridal party entered the parlor at 8.30 to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Roy Courser and were attended by A. L. Peak and Mrs. Benj. Moore of Harvey. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. J. Farman, an intimate friend of the bride and groom in the presence of about 60 guests. The bride was attired in a dark blue traveling gown and wore white roses. The room was very tastefully decorated for the occasion, the color scheme being green and white.
